"Destroy Me"

Visit "Destroy Me" on MotoLyrics.com

Never had the heart to break yours
Never had the will to pull away
Never had the strength to face it
Never had the words to ease the pain
You left - in me

Sometimes you cannot love enough (to make it)
Sometimes you cannot save your soul (from breaking)
Sometimes you die for your beliefs
Sometimes you cannot make them see
You're there

Always knew I would forgive you
Always knew you would forget I was Always knew you would destroy me
Always knew I was the only one
To fall - in love

Sometimes you cannot love enough (to make it)
Sometimes you cannot save your soul (from breaking)
Sometimes you die for your beliefs
Sometimes you cannot make them see
You're there

The razor blade that is your eyes
Stabs and tears me down inside
Until the apathetic aperture just opens up my eyes
To the possibility
That you were never meant for me
That you were never meant for me

Sometimes you cannot love enough (to make it)
Sometimes you cannot save your soul (from breaking)
Sometimes you die for your beliefs
Sometimes you cannot make them see
