"Voice Of Reason"

Father heard a voice of reason
Echo through his head
But he did not grasp the consequence
Of what he did or what he said

Hits her hard and breaks her heart
Hard up against the wall
She cant stop his mad descent
He never sees her fall

Lover heard a voice of reason
Echo through his head
But he did not grasp the consequence
Of what he did or what he said

In a fit he pins her down
And throws her to the floor
He breaks her arm he breaks her heart
And then storms out the door
