Sex sex sex created by cosmopolitics
People didn't know how to fuck
Before they read the Cosmopolitan
Original advices to be a Mrs. Bed Queen
You'll break my heart using ten secrets of a man
You've read them in the Cosmopolitan

I feel good when I put off your clothes
When I put off your pants
I feel this rock'n'roll smell
Because it is the same pussy
But it's another girl
There's no way for searching my love

Cosmetical correction avoid your ex-reflection
You're thinking- God's sake- I was born as a mistake
Screaming along against the clones of the people
Spending all your salary in copying poster's female
Indoor-use girl, breakable china,
Seeking for your man, first test with vagina
Wasn't good enough, it's time to say- bye ya!
