Someone's read into the race.
They've seen behind me,
Words so brave.
On the left, where righteous men
And horror meant close to a end.

The characters changed,
From inside my mind.
One less change, one man to live.
Ninja! Ninja!

Sword made of steel, the Ninja in red,
Destroyed one ten minutes part
Some distant to fear
Demons waiting away from the best
Ninja cries out desperately,
With a urgency raised.

The characters changed,
From inside my mind.
One less change, one man to live.
Ninja! Ninja!
