Verse 1:

Loving you is the hardest thing to do, hardest thing to do, sometimes.
You throw dirt in my face, then you push me over, push me over the line.

Chorus:

I would've warned you if I'd known
I would've warned you if I'd known
But I never knew I was cruel.
No, I never knew I was cruel.
Baby 'til I, baby 'til I met you.

Verse 2:

And now you show me everything that I could be Everything that I could be,
everything that I could be, and that you steal away
Bend me, 'til I break, and make me say
Something baby that I don't wanna say

Repeat chorus

Bridge

You know money, toys, booze and noise
Such a silly game, such a silly game to play
When I call you on the phone
Just to hit you with with one last stone
I should have warned you,
I should have warned you.

Key change ??

Ending:

Peace of mind, honey I'll treat ya kind,
Treat you kind, sometimes
But I'm a selfish man
Put my head in my hands
My head in my hands and I'm crying for you.
