Every heart wants the other hand
but it was more than I could stand
Said you were running when you hit the ground, Mostly you were just hangin' around and
You said love is been kind to you
Now you know it can be unkind
You pain on mine when I send the door,
Because we both know that's what you came here for

Chorus:

Have you've been waitin' on a broken heart?
did you see the end from the very start
I saw it too
I never knew that you were only waitin' on a broken heart.

Clocks always ticking upon the wall,
Waitin' for someone to take the fall
One hand always wants to hang on the other one says that it's time to move on and

True love's always been such a racket you try every cold, but you never can crack it
'cause it's love that's new and all the rest
but the love that's gone, baby hurts so fast.

Chorus:

Have you've been waitin' on a broken heart?
did you see the end from the very start
I saw it too
I never knew that you were only waitin' on a broken heart.

2 x Chorus:

Have you've been waitin' on a broken heart?
Did you see the end from the very start
I saw it too
I never knew that you were only waitin' on a broken heart.
Have you've been waitin'?
Waitin' on a broken heart.

Have you've been waitin'?
Waitin' on a broken heart.
