War and terror I see with my eyes, they're not blind.
Dead bodies on my sight, this can't be right.

Ain't got no place to hide, just have to keep up the fight,
Just grab my hand if you still want to see the light!

I still want my revenge.
Everybody wants their share.
I won't stop this fight.
Don't care if it's the day or night!

So much blood, sweat and tears, but still everyone hears the words that

Come out of my mouth.

CONFRONT YOUR FEARS NOW!

[chorus]
I will (I will see) the things that are reality.
We, we will (we will) face this immortality.

[solo: Ott]
