left out in the rain too long / there was not no glory to re-live all 3 fingers - all your limbs / pliable now as steam and soft light traded off when you were down / took it - on took it on the story bitches and the scene donâ€™t care / unraveling now like steam and soft light the cutter loses his nerve and turns away the stepdaughter dissolves into the dark woods soundless

mama take the pillow from under my head / stepdaughter made my dying bed left out in the rain too long / to marinate in steam and soft light

the cutter delivers an elk heart for false proof bury me shallow and scratch out my name iâ€™d make every mistake all over again
