Can everyone give me some space
And tell these people what to say
It's all we know
CAUSE IT'S ALL WE HAD
When everything falls at your feet
And everyone knows where you'll be
You'll wanna leave
Cause I'll keep pushing forward
Until my hearts condemn
Yeah, I'll keep pushing forward untill the end

Stop running away, you'll figure it out
Stop running away
SING LOUD, STAY PROUD

Where were you when the lights went out?
I was changing ways and never breaking down
Not looking back on everything behind me
So another pointless year has passed
Achieved nothing and I feel I'm coming last
Well soon you'll see, I've changed everything about me

Stop running away, you'll figure it out
Stop running away
SING LOUD, STAY PROUD

I can barely breath
Throughout all this pain
It stands by me
Take a breath and look a little closer
You will see that everyone not the same
Take a breath and look a little closer
You will see that everyones not to blame

Stop running away, you'll figure it out
Stop running away
