When we think with our hands and touch with our hearts

We'll throw time away when alone in the dark
Sleep in for days and watch the world pass by
When the only light shines under the door
Catches your skin, our clothes on the floor
Move closer to me, So close you can see
Baby it's you and me.

Don't be shy, Cuz I'm nervous too.

Let me take you home again.
Sink my lips into your skin
Make you have that brand new feeling
I'm falling faster in, Love with you
Take my hand and we will make it through
Don't you know all I'm feeling is you
It will only ever be us two.
The world is ours tonight.

Stare at you in the dark, even though I can't see
I know you're right there staring straight back at me
I feel your heart racing keeping up with mine
Kiss me again, leave all your fears behind
So I think of this moment and where we are now
I'll make the first move but I just don't know how We'll both let it happen before we decide
To pull ourselves closer and stay there all night

You've never been loved, until I've loved you.

Let me take you home again.
Sink my lips into your skin
Make you have that brand new feeling
I'm falling faster in, Love with you
Take my hand and we will make it through
Don't you know all I'm feeling is you
It will only ever be us two.
The world is ours tonight.

TONIGHT, TONIGHT
