Takes me down underneath it's weight. it is my master.

I

Will drown underneath it's sea it spells disaster.

Underneath it's sea all's lost and found. until it's

Swallowed whole what's yours no way to ever know how much

This can weigh. hollowed-out and broken. feeling I have

Lost control. and everything is gray. my dark cloud

Hovers overhead. constant companion. wrapped in dark

Shroud. lie alone in bed bottomless canyon. lie alone in

Bed all's lost and found. until it's swallowed whole

What's yours no way to ever know how much this can weigh.

Hollowed-out and broken. feeling I have lost control.

I am so tired of this conscious sleep. lethargic, low and

Uninspired. sinking ever deep. wallow in wet cement.

I'm

Mired. crush me underneath it all. pull me from the

Weight that squeezes down
