Ain't nowhere to hide from your love, I swear
See your face everywhere, yeah well, well, well yeah
Since you've been gone, I'm sadder than sad
You see I'm hung up on you real bad

The blues got me, it's tied it's strong knots around me Since you downed me, sadness found me, I think it's gonna drown me
My days don't seem right without you
I spend all my time thinking 'bout you
You taunt me girl, you haunt me girl

This fire still burns for you, my heart still yearns for you
And even though we're through I can't, I can't get over you
I can't stop the flame, I can't stop the rain
My mind can't convince my heart that you ain't coming back no more
And even though we're through
My ears keep hearing your knock on the door

Your face is in front of me, it's in everything I see Your voice whispers in the wind saying, here, there, gone again
You taunt me baby, you haunt me baby, oh

Nowhere to hide, nowhere to hide, can't run, can't hide
Nowhere to hide, nowhere to hide, can't run, can't hide
Nowhere to hide, nowhere to hide, can't run, can't hide
Nowhere to hide, nowhere to hide, can't run, can't hide
Nowhere to hide, nowhere to hide, can't run, can't hide
