Oh mistress mind, where are you roaming?
who stay in here, your true love is coming that can't sing both high and low trip no further for the sweetening journeys and then love as meeting every wise man son that know.

What is love, tears not hear after present mirth as present laughter watched you come and still unsure in the late then lies no plenty then come kiss me sweet and twenty use the staff will not injure.
