I'm standing here, watching the waves break on the sand, holding your
Hand, and wondering if there was a time
When I felt more comfortable, I could conquer the world, with you by my side We've gone down, so many lonely roads, searched for what we've known Was, right around the corner, and I knew
From the time I saw your face, from our first embrace, that you were the one

We could call it luck, we could call it fate
We could call it hearts desire
We could call it a dream, even though we're wide a wake
Let's just call it love
I like to call it love

I feel like, I've known you, my whole life, yhat everyday and night, was made Just for us
I don't know, what I ever did before, you walked through my door and changed My whole life

We could call it luck, we could call it fate
We could call it hearts desire
We could call it a dream, even though we're wide a wake
Let's just call it love
I like to call it love

Let's just call it love, huhuhuhuu Would you take me by the hand, this only you can understand
This crazy thing we call love

I'm standing here, watching the waves break on the sand, holding your
When I felt more comfortable, I could conquer the
world with, you by my side

Ohh, we could call it luck, we could call it fate
We could call it hearts desire
We could call it a dream, even though we're wide a wake
Let's just call it love
I like, to call it love

Let's just call it love
I like, to call it, love
