Verse 1:

You feel like you'll never break free
And you're a prisoner of me
I keep you away from the life that you want

Verse 2:

It's scary to think about it
The murder you want to commit
Could go undetected if I don't tell no one

Lead In 1:

The ceiling is falling down on me
I keep one eye open, open when I sleep

Chorus:

The bed is cold and I've known it for a long time
It's getting old, The bed is cold
The bed is cold and I've known it for a long time
The truth be told, The bed is cold

Verse 3:

I wake with a chill each morning
Has nobody seen the warning
Or are these delusions imaginary

Verse 4:

The lock that I found on the storm door
A silhouette the moves across the floor
My every suspicion corrupts my sanity

Lead In:

Four walls are closing in on me
The air is freezing thirty two degrees

(Repeat Chorus)

Bridge:

Though I have been looking for it everywhere
The feeling is gone but there's a ghost of me there
