Paul Kelly (Mushroom)

Flying through the air tonight way up in the sky

I can see lights below me as I'm passing by

Swooping down from cruising clouds, aiming for your street

Slipping through your window, moving with no feet

Invisible me

You might feel something brushing

It's only nothing

Just invisible me

Floating in the air tonight high inside your room

And my eyes adjusting slowly to the gloom

Looking down I see a form and I know it's thee

Sleeping so softly but sleeping not with me

Invisible me

You might feel something brushing

It's only nothing

Just invisible me

Invisible me

You might feel something brushing

It's only nothing

Just invisible me

Just invisible me

Just invisible me
