Self-contained environments, where shut-ins live their worthless lives

Here you did awake, meant to gaze upon their sloth They remain unaware as you pass and watch the pathetic routine to which they all adhere

This is the gallery of Stupid-High Marijuana museum, exhibits of death

Behold this gallery of Stupid-High

Tremble comprehending the visions of this artist
What he has created is a drooling brain dead horde
This vast corridor displays hundreds of retards watching TV screens

All quite similar, but no two are the same

Like nihilistic paintings by a single artist, both brilliant and insane

The subjects set in living rooms, no desire to escape Imprisoned by their own freewill, demented sculptures are their state

Unknowing, under lock and key, no escape for them is left

Couches, bong and buds are this gallery's decor
The smell from the gallery, the stink of human waste and pot

You face the sordid nature of stoners on display See the addicts through the looking glass, they think of nothing for their brains are mush

Witness brutal exploitation of potheads in decay
