I woke up this morning thinking about all the things you do

The way that your smile illuminates the entire room
I don't think that you even have the slightest clue How beautiful you are, everything you do has the perfect tune

I'm going for a girl who is going for her dreams
Which wouldn't be so bad if her dreams included me
Time is running out, I don't have eternity A few months is all I've got to make her fall in love with me

I never saw this happening, it doesn't make sense
'Cause falling in love with you has never been so inconvenient
But I would give it all away just to have the chance To let our lives write the greatest tale ever told of romance

It's not too late, don't walk away, our love is right on time
This could be the greatest thing to happen in our lives
