"Miles Away"

What do you do when there's no one around
To hold you tight when you're feeling down
I've been all alone for quite some time
Friends are never there, true love is hard to find

I guess that I'll just have to get used to feeling alone
'Cause there is no one calling, I'm left here on my own
And I know it's just a season and one day the clouds
will fade
But right now I just can't help but feel miles away

Do they know exactly how I feel
I'm just a normal man who longs for something real
So tell me what I have to do Nothing seems to work for me
I've done all that I know to do
Wake me from this lonely dream

I guess that I'll just have to get used to feeling alone
'Cause there is no one calling, I'm left here on my own
And I know it's just a season and one day the clouds
will fade
But right now I just can't help but feel miles away

When will my lonely days finally pass and fade away?
