You wanna go wanna play for the hip kids
I know you fake it but it's none of my business
I wanna come I wanna party with the hip kids
If I wanna fake it it's none of your business

Got the coat got the keys to your new car
Wanna go, wanna drive, drive fast go far
Wanna dance; wanna drink till you can't stand up
Come on baby I can tell that you're not that tough

Curtain goes up and the lights come down
Gotta have a new look
Gotta hear the new sound
I'll be there
I'll be dancing in the front, front row
I don't care
I don't mind 'cause I think you're

Curtain goes up and the lights come down
Wanna see the new look
Gotta hear the new sound
And the crowds start to dance
When you hit that chord
Got the style and the cash
And they'll always want more

You wanna go wanna play for the hip kids
I know you fake it but it's none of my business
I wanna come I wanna party with the hip kids
If I wanna fake it it's none of your business

When you walk the street
The girls turn and stare
The way you wear your clothes
The way you cut your hair
Tell me something new
I'm getting bored
Make a cute remark
I'm keeping score

Curtain goes up and the lights come down
Gotta have a new look

Gotta hear the new sound
I'll be there

I don't care
I don't mind 'cause I think you're

Curtain goes up and the lights come down
Wanna see the new look
Gotta hear the new sound
And the crowds start to dance
When you hit that chord
Got the style and the cash

You wanna go wanna play for the hip kids
I know you fake it but it's none of my business

Got the lights
I really want a fog machine
Turn it on
Turn it up
Oh make me scream
Gotta have that rock,
That rockin look
Outside
1, 2, 3, 4 LETS GO

Curtain goes up and the lights come down
Gotta make the new sound
I'll be there
I don't care
I don't mind 'cause I think you're

Curtain goes up and the lights come down
Wanna see the new look

Curtain goes up and the lights come down
Wanna see the new look

Got the style and the cash
