"Plastic Girl"

I put on the clothes on which I spent way too much,
today
La-la-la, I'm shopping in a fine mood
To tell the truth, I'm fibbing, but hey
Chocolate and happiness are sweet things, right?

Your heart is a cloudy sky, in my heart rain is falling
I'm a modern girl, cold plastic
That's what I'm made of, so it's all fine

Integrate! Separate! The two flavors!
Mix! Collaborate! Blending deliciously
It's a really wonderful formation to which there's just one password: "Plastic"
Integrate! Separate! Being dolled up

In this really fantastic Tokyo
Born from a laboratory, I'm a Plastic Girl
