Suck the iron from my blood
And fashion into a small nail
Bang into your head
For all of things I've said
Now I don't have to try for cool
It's a long while now since we were at school
In every way
The nails will bear our names

Keep an open mind, I know you will
Keep it in time, I know you will
Give a little look to show you care
If you look around it's everywhere
I know what you mean to me
It took a long time just for me to see
My fever is receding
Now that I have one thing to believe in

Tired shoulders, a boarding time
I've got your back if I know you've got mine
And we should have known
For all of the seeds we've sown
I feel broken if you feel too

Now the earth is hard, but the seeds will push through
The race has been won
It ends with a starting gun

Keep an open mind, I know you will
Keep it in time, I know you will
Give a little look to show you care
If you look around it's everywhere
I know what you mean to me
It took a long time just for me to see
My fever is receding
Now that I have one thing to believe in

Keep an open mind, I know you will
Keep it in time, I know you will
Give a little look to show you care
If you look around it's everywhere
I know what you mean to me

It took a long time just for me to see
My fever is receding
Now that I have one thing to believe in
