(Female Vocal)

As my mind is twisted and lost in some world, into some space my mind is hurled, you may say that i'm truly lost, but i'll try to fight out no matter the cost, why is it you that i sacrifice so much, i thought you were real, so real, something i can touch, are you really there, or are you just invisible as the silent air

(Robotic male Vocal Chorus)

somewhere, somehow
you aint there,
or that's how i feel,
i feel like i'm in schizophrenia

(Female Vocal)

At night i cant sleep because of my insomnia, it drives so closer to the world of schizophrenia, i'm beginning to lose it wiether it's insomnia or insomniac,
when i look into the mirror i see a maniac,
i seem fine,
but it's all in my mind,
just because i love you,
this is what i have to do, i live my life suffering and crying, when others are happily ever after and some are dying,
i am lost in schizophrenia

you aint there,
or that's how i feel,

schizophrenia (repeats about 20 times, but fades as does)
