She has the city inside
Behind that look in her eyes
He couldn't leave it behind
As she was fucking his mind
As she sits on the floor
With a smile on her face
Their lips are yellin for more
To crash down in this place

You take me down
You cut my light
You break my neck
You kill the night
And both we know that we should stop
But we can't get out of this club

You take me down
You cut my light
You break my neck
You kill the night
And both we know that we should stop

Chorus

2x
Yeah I know, we both going down to hell
And when we wake up in the storm
We'll be wishing this would be over

She has the city inside
She's gonna show him tonight
Always insisting to go
But they just couldn't say no
Switching off all the light
In search for places to hide
Tell me why won't they see
Sun comes and he leaves

You take me down
You cut my light
You break my neck
You kill the night

And both we know that we should stop
But we can't get out of this club

Chorus 2x

5x
You kill the night

Chorus 1x

You and I we both going down to hell
And when we wake up in the storm
We'll be wishing this would be over

Yeah I know, we both going down to hell
And when we wake up in the storm
I don't want this life to be over
