How much do I owe you?" said the husband to his wife,

"For standing beside me through the hard years of my life.

"Shall I bring you diamonds, shall I buy you furs?

"Say the word and it's yours.

And his wife said: "I won't take less than your love, sweet love.

"No, I won't take less than your love.

"All the riches of the world could never be enough,

"And I won't take less than your love."

"How much do I owe you?" to the mother said the son.

"For all that you have taught me in the days that I was young.

"Shall I bring expensive blankets to cast upon your bed?

"And a pillow for to rest your weary head."

And the mother said: "I won't take less than your love, sweet love.

"No, I won't take less than your love.

"All the comforts of the world could never be enough,

"And I won't take less than your love."

"How much do I owe you?" said the man to his Lord.

"For giving me this day and every day that's gone before.

"Shall I build a temple, shall I make a sacrifice?

"Tell me Lord and I will pay the price."

And the Lord said: "I won't take less than your love, sweet love.

"No, I won't take less than your love.

"All the treasures of the world could never be enough,

"And I won't take less than your love."

"I won't take less than your love, sweet love.

"No, I won't take less than your love.

"All the treasures of the world could never be enough,

"And I won't take less than your love."

"No, I won't take less than your love."
