We started out to walk through life hand in hand together
We ran into some trouble on the highway to forever Took a turn that turned out wrong woke to find the feeling gone
But I know that we'll recover if we hold onto each other.

Let's take another run at it baby, take another run at our love
Let's have a little fun with it darling it don't have to be so serious
Don't tell me that it's over and we can pick the pieces
up
Let's take another run take another run at our love.

Sometimes the mountain looks so high when you're standing at the bottom But once we've made it to the top you can't see the problem
Right now it hurts a little bit but we've never been the kind to quit
And I know we'll make it over we'll be rolling in the clover.

Let's take another run at it baby, take another run at
our love
Let's have a little fun with it darling it don't have to be
so serious
Don't tell me that it's over and we can pick the pieces
up
Let's take another run take another run at our love.

If we walk away and say we tried We'll never know what's on the other side.

Let's take another run at it baby, take another run at
our love
Let's have a little fun with it darling it don't have to be
so serious
Don't tell me that it's over and we can pick the pieces
up
Let's take another run take another run at our love.
