I didn't really want to stay here
But I'm surprised to see the moon up above
And you know what I always say,
If it gets you through the day
Then it's the right kind of love.
Don't say that you won't find another,
Don't say we fit just like a hand in a glove.
Why should we worry about each other.
If it gets you through the day
Then it's the right kind of love.
It isn't saying let's stay forever
It isn't saying leave me never
I'm only saying let's be together
Why do we promise love forever?
Why do we need the help of God up above
To say as long as we're together.
If it gets you through the day
Then it's the right kind of love.
If it gets you through the day
Then it's the right kind of love.
If it gets you through the day
Then it's the right kind of love.
