We're lead to an end of our integrity.
The cracks that have been brought upon ourselves.
But most of all, and most of all.

So what a way to waste a day with all these broken promises.
(Woah, woah.) Promises.
I'll give back what you have given to me. (Woah, woah)
So can you hear me? No.

For I've given right back into you've given to me. (Me)
How can you take and take and sleep so soundly?
After all you've done to me.

Now I see through my own eyes, and It's not because.
And I'll give you and I'll give you what you want.

With all these broken promises, It's so hard.
I have heard those words before.

So what a way to waste a day with all these broken
promises
(Woah, woah.) Promises.
I'll give back what you have given to me (Woah, woah)
So can you hear me?
No! No, no, you give me...

Fuck you (all)

This night is sweeter spent alone.
So much sweeter.
This night is sweeter spent alone.
There's nothing left for you to change.

This is the end of you and me.
There's nothing left of you and me.
Fuck you!
