You couldn't find the answer
So you failed this vicious test
Your thoughts like smoke
It made you choke
I think you need some rest

You think you're so funny
But your smile is just pretend
This ship sails through
Your river of thoughts
Will never reach it's land

Please try to say I'm okay
Before you fall and fall
These dreams you made

Just fall out waste
No one saw them all

I don't think you're crazy
I don' think you're fool
You just lost the line
So that's fine
You cannot change the rules

I don't think you're crazy
I don' think you're fool
You just lost the line
So that's fine
You cannot change the rules

Fallin… fallin…
