Silver bombs towards the sky
Face to face - eye to eye
We're falling from His hands
My beginning and your end

"My door was open"
"My path was free to walk"
Words of truth unspoken
In platitudes you've talked

Where's your God now?
Your god has left us here
He will not come again
He will not come again
Where's your God now?
Your God has left us here
He will not come again
I feed your primal fear

"I've tried to warn you"
"I've tried to love and care"
"I've tried to save you"
"I am your blank despair"

You may have won the battle
But you will lose the war
Silver bombs towards the sky
I am your fading star
