Well, I had to leave town because of Uncle Sam's deal, ha ha ha yeah
Well, I guess my good lovin' done lost it's appeal Because when I come back I heard da bad bad news
They say our big romance has been gettin' abuse
Now tell me true, don't lie to me
Have you been step, step, step, step, step, step,
steppin' out on me?
I've got ways of findin' out if you've been steppin' out on me
Don't do me good and I'll give you a piece of my mind

I told you once, I told you twice Stop your cattin' around or else I'll put you on ice I'm tellin' ya baby what I want you to do Stop your messin' 'round or I'm gonna step out on you Hey! Hey! Hey hey hey!

If I can't be your one & only man Well, I'm goin' to your dad and give him back your hand
Then I'll call the preacher, tell the choir stay home I guess you're the kind of woman that's just bound to roam
Ah, tell me true, now don't lie to me
Have you been step, step, step, step, step, step,
steppin' out on me?
Tell the truth, child; you've been steppin' out on me I gotta know in my heart if you've been steppin' out on me I'll be checkin' with all your friends if you've been
steppin' out on me
Better tell me the truth honey; have you been steppin' out on me?
Yeah I'm gonna check; no more stuff or I'll be steppin' out on you (More talk, fading out)
