"Me First"

Letting you decide is easier than making up my mind.
But I'm feeling it now.
and it'll catch up quick.
In an eyeblink you turn into whatever one you're with.
Nothing wrong with being two people, doesn't mean
this isn't true love.
I know you never asked for this.
I must've asked a thousand times still yet you wont admit it.
I'm feeling better, you're looking worse.
I care a lot for you but I gotta think of me first.
Letting them decide, settling the when where what when why. They'll take us away on a fucked up trip.
We'll be lucky to make it back alive in this 85 Econoline.
Nothing wrong with an east coast tour.
That doesnt mean we'll become rock stars
