Day breaks into pieces, and I make another enemy.
I'm lost by the wayside, but I made it in your diary.

And you say...
I'm gonna want you, want you.
I'm gonna need you, need you sometime sometime

I know I'm a disappointment and I've lost all your sympathy.
And you say...
I'm gonna want you, want you.
I'm gonna need you, need you sometime sometime
sometimes

Now I've got voids to fill
And I've got voids to fill

Day breaks and we lose our balance.
Did you have to throw the book at me?

And you say I'm gonna want you, want you.
I'm gonna need you, need you sometimes sometimes
sometimes
times, times

And I've got voids to fill
And I've got voids to fill
And I've got voids to fill
And I've got voids to fill

I'm gonna want you, want you.
I'm gonna need you, need you sometime
I'm gonna want you, want you.
I'm gonna need you, need you sometime
I'm gonna want you, want you.
I'm gonna need you, need you sometime
I'm gonna want you, want you.
I'm gonna need you, need you
