You've closed a door in front of me
I wait patiently outside And as the minutes tick away
I feel my anger rise

And who's the object of my rage?
And who's not being fair?
Is it you for your indifference?
Or me for just standing there?

'Cause in my mind the room beyond is bathed in golden light Well I dream about you through the day and I toss and turn at night

Sometimes it's hard to understand
When they say that pride's a sin
Should I go or should I stay on the outside looking in?

Well I didn't make the grade today and I'm not the only one But my heart won't stop hurting my feeling all alone

And maybe we'll trade places in some not so distant year I'll hear your voice a-calling out and I'd cover up my ears

'Cause in my mind the room beyond
is bathed in golden light
well I dream about you through the day
and I toss and turn at night

Well sometimes it's hard to understand
when they say that pride's a sin
An' should I go or should I stay on the outside looking in?

Well I could brag on the things I've done or the places I have been

But I've never found a cure for on the outside looking in Sometimes it's hard to understand
when they say that pride's a sin
Should I go or should I stay
on the outside looking in?
