"My Index Finger"

Passing the cities
And towns with no houses

Passing the forests
Without any trees

Passing the rivers
And lakes with no water

Passing the mountains
And hills with no height

Compass
Taken
Direction

Things are Set in Motion

It's the first day in wonderland
It starts with everything that I plan

With my index finger

Looking for Detours
And shortcuts

It's the first day in wonderland
It starts with everything that I plan

Trying and tying
The clues all together
The things that I see
In a number and line

Try to consider
The facts altogether
Look for the place
And the time of the prime
