The first time my eyes, looked at you
I felt, a mystery

In my heart it was all done
I knew I found the one
That was meant for me

To the Lord up above
I prayed he'd send a love
And you're the answer to my letter

I believe that God put us together

I've been waiting for this day
For so long
To show you just, how much
I really care

Though with me I know is where, you belong
And whenever you need me, I'll be there
Our life we will share
With God's tender care, around us

Troubles may come
But God is the one, who found us
And it thrills me just to know
With you I will go, starting now until forever

I believe that God put us, together

I've been waiting for this day
For so long
To show you just how much
I really care

Though with me I know is where, you belong
And whenever you need me, I'll be there

The first time my eyes looked at you I felt
A mystery
In my heart it was all done
I knew I'd found the one

That was meant for me

To the Lord up above
I prayed he's send a love
And you're the answer to my letters

I believe that God put us together
I believe that God put us together
