Paul Young - It's what she didn't say

There's a suitcase at my door tonight
All my dreams are locked inside
Never hurt before the way I do
I'm afraid of someone new
Only once, you give it all
Second time you know the fall
She was everything and more to me
I took her leaving silently
The world still turns and seasons change
And the wounded love it's strange
Late at night I miss her touch
Foolish heart that want so much
It's what she didn't say that hurt so bad
It's what we didn't do that makes me sad
And now I'm talking to her picture on the wall
It's what she didn't say that burns in me
Our broken promise that won't set me free
It's what she didn't say that I remember best of all
In her silent way she changed my life
The best in me became alive
With her smile she calmed the storms in me
All my passion now runs free
On the loose with broken wings
Wondering what tomorrow brings
It's what she didn't say that hurt so bad
It's what we didn't do that makes me sad
And now I'm talking to her picture on the wall
It's what she didn't say that burns in me
Our broken promise that won't set me free
It's what she didn't say that I remember best of all
Late at night I miss your touch
Foolish heart that wants so much
It's what she didn't say that hurt so bad
It's what we didn't do that makes me sad
And now I'm talking to her picture on the wall
Unfinished dream that only burns in me
A broken promise that won't set me free
It's what she didn't say that I remember best of all
