I lost myself
But I found my way back
I found myself
In a place where I never would've thought of
Not ever

Pacing back and forth
Struggling to find
A place that is right
A face that is mine

But we're finally coming back around this time
I'll make an attempt to handle mine
We're finally coming back around this time
I'll make an attempt to handle mine

I lost myself
It took a while to get
Back on track
Searching for myself
In a place where I
Never would've thought of
Not ever

Pacing back and forth
Struggling to find
A face that is right
A place that is mine

But we're finally coming back around this time
I'll make an attempt to handle mine
We're finally coming back around this time
I'll make an attempt to handle mine

We're finally coming back around
Catch yourself before you hit ground
We're finally coming back around
Catch yourself before you hit ground

But we're finally coming back around this time
I'll make an attempt to handle mine
We're finally coming back around this time

I'll make an attempt to handle mine
