In a boat heading upriver
In a boat heading to your heart
The end of comfort, the end of artifice
The end of everything, the end of everything

Into the heart

I snort some coke
It's in my brain
Makes me feel alive
Makes the world insane

Into the heart

I see the colours
Of the trees
Out there's the enemy
Waiting for me

Into the heart

I got an Uzi
The only work of art
And on the handgrip
I paint my heart

Into the heart
