"Never"

There's something wrong and I don't know why
I lie awake staring at the sky

Crying silently so you won't hear
Invoking succubi that don't appear
Staring at my souvenirs
Dreaming of someone that isn't here
Waiting for the pain to disappear

And I can never change the way I feel
It can never be the same
It will never be the same

You will never be inside my dreams
You can never walk with me
You will never walk with me

And though I love you baby
It will never, never
Never be the same

When we make love I'm never there
I close my eyes and think of her
I feel her body instead of yours
My heart belongs to her

And I can never change the way I feel
It can never be the same
It will never be the same

You will never be inside my dreams
You can never walk with me
You will never walk with me

And though I love you baby
It will never, never
Never be the same
It will never be the same
As it was with her
As it was with her
Was with her

All you give is all that's mine
When we kiss it's a crime
You tell me that will change in time
But I know it will be forever
