Ahhh!!! shit, baby.

Canyon bro', your life is worked in

Dream about the witch trials

You get all too lot of pepper in your forecast

Beneath the shady mezzanine

Keep it when you want to belong...

July fourth, raging fortune

Dream about the witch trials

Send in the romance of people with their dreadlocks

Tied like windshields in the night

Keep it when you want to belong...

I keep my head on for pretty jades

I keep my head up for ships and shades

I keep my head up for bitchy braids

I keep my head up for guilty Ray

--(feel like I'm falling!!)

Attack! attack! attack! attack! attack! attack! attack!
attack!...
