Close the door and grab your wraps
I won't even say why
There's a girl outside the door
With the moon and the stars in her eyes
Gotta be quick
Gotta be cool you know what I mean
So grab your keys
And grab your jeans
Cause she's waiting outside for me

OO over and over again
OO over and over
And you know it feels alright
You know as well as I
And you know that when she cries
She breaks like a morning sky
Now honey dance the night away

I don't know where she came from
I don't know how long she can stay
All I know is she's mine tonight
And I don't know how long it can last
