jamie)
something i knew all along something i heard in my head you're not who you think you are who you really wanna be look at me wide eyes they're closing everything just seems to empty don't you even dare to cry i could never hurt you

i don't need to talk to you and i don't need to look at you i don't need to fuck you and i don't need your validation these lines cut across yeah jagged lines raped by time don't you even think to cry

chorus

(this is about when people think that being close to them and being their (girl)friend is the most important thing in the world and they everyone else revolves around them. like if you wanna be anything, you need their approval
