Eyes that are full of mystery
They shine so far for so long
They've taken me where I don't ever wanna leave
They made me weak, they made me so strong.

Eyes that are full of magic
Like a sunrise over the sea
When they smile I know they work miracles They've taken the old and made something new out of me

Your eyes, I don't wanna be away from your eyes
Don't ever turn them away from me
I wanna be under your spell
If I'm this close to heaven
I don't wanna be away from your eyes, your eyes

Eyes that will look inside of me
Eyes that will take hold of me
Eyes that will be below me
Eyes that will control me
Eyes that will control me
(Eyes that will control me)

Your eyes, I don't wanna be away from your eyes
Don't ever turn them away from me
I wanna be under your spell
If I'm this close to heaven
I don't wanna be away from your eyes
I don't wanna be away from your eyes
I don't wanna be away from your eyes
