It's easy to look at the sun when it's going down
It's easy to look at the sun when it's coming up
Makes my, makes my city orange
My heart breathes in inside of you

When I'm next to you but it's easy to Lose mind of you when the worries from
In you, in you my healer
I'm sheltered till the sun again tomorrow

Moments till the sun has left again tomorrow I'll know
your breath
When the sun goes down there's an image of you
Moments till the sun has left again tomorrow I'll know
your breath
When the sun goes down there's an image of you

It's easy to look at the sun when it's going down
It's easy to look at the sun when it's coming up
Led by, led by your light
Your love in the A.M you are nere

In the moon night you are here
With me and I'm assured that
With you, with you forever
I'm with you eternal till the sun again tomorrow

Moments till the sun has left again tomorrow I'll know
your breath
When the sun goes down there's an image of you
Moments till the sun has left again tomorrow I'll know
your breath
When the sun goes down there's an image of you

The sun's going down there's an image of you
I feel the sun's coming up rise again tomorrow

Makes my, makes my, makes my
In you, in you, in you
Led by, led by, led by
With you, with you, with you
I'm with you eternal

Moments till the sun has left again tomorrow I'll know
your breath
When the sun goes down there's an image of you
Moments till the sun has left again tomorrow I'll know
your breath
When the sun goes down there's an image of you

Moments till the sun has left again tomorrow I'll know
your breath
When the sun goes down there's an image of you
Till the sun, till the sun, till the sun again tomorrow
Till the sun, till the sun, there's an image of you
