I see an emptiness dancing around in your eyes
Your emotions are tangled, you've landed hard too many times
Forces are pulling you in
But not to the places you've already been

Don't be afraid to walk into faith
And let go of the reasons and all of the feelings
That keep you from floating out into the air
At the end of the fall, I'll be there

I know that it's hard to believe you can trust anymore
When you're covered in scars from the times that you've trusted before
As soon as the moment is right
Step to the edge and then jump for your life

Don't be afraid to walk into faith
And let go of the reasons and all of the feelings
That keep you from floating out into the air
At the end of the fall, I'll be there
Let yourself fall into me, just believe in gravity

Don't be afraid to walk into faith
Let go of the reasons and all of the feelings
That keep you from floating out into the air

Don't be afraid to walk into faith
And let go of the reasons and all of the feelings
That keep you from floating out into the air
At the end of the fall, I'll be there
Let yourself fall into me, just believe in gravity
