I like to destroy my life
I dream about have paradise
I went mountain, kiss the ground
I want to listen, listen...

I have a liar in my bed
What are you hiding in this kiss
I can destroy, destroy myself
I have a liar in my life

I love to destroy myself
I want to scare you, but you're in your bed
I want to serve your lips again
But when are you ready, listen please

I have a liar in my bed
What are you hiding in this kiss
I can destroy, destroy myself
I have a liar too close to me

I love to destroy myself
I want to scare when you are wild
I want play your weak game
I have a liar in my life

I really don't care (in my life)
I really don't care (in my life)
