Heat and Romance
Suspend all talks of a future
The past is of no interest to me
It's the moment I hope to live to see

Heat and Romance
Your face I can't quite remember
Your name forgettably plain
It's the idea of you that will remain

To wonder whether to stay or to leave
I am slow and I'm dizzy
Those with sensitive skin stay in
Hot lovers' fume
Bad for my lungs

Heat and Romance
Your face not mine to remember
Your name Virginia Plain
Still a commodity so hard to obtain

To wonder whether to stay or to leave
I am slow and I'm dizzy
Those with sensitive skin stay in
Hot lovers' fume
Bad for my lungs

I'm resting
I'm resting
I'm resting
Through this
