Imbibe and vomit prophecy
Crash through dams
That pen up ceremony
As herd in languid form

Can thou spill hollow beans
And summon demon

Dismiss the cross
Take to sky
Feast walpurgis
No heathen

A year you age for the airs you breathe
Wand will splint faith in candle burning
A whimpering hole where heart should speak
A whimpering hole where heart should speak

Dismiss the cross
Take to sky
Feast walpurgis
No heathen
