Hold on to the world
Don't you know, that
That old universe, universe is calling your name I can hear it calling You are a part of my nature's finest; you've got a heart of gold Something heaven inspired, you've got a smile that can light the dawn

Love me for, love me for today Tomorrow, Tomorrow may never come
If you should fall along the way
Never sorrow, Sorrow wasn't made just for some
You will always be my love

Hold on to the world
Don't you know that, that old universe, universe is calling your name
I can hear it calling you know you will always be a part of nature's finest Got a heart of gold something heaven inspired You've got a smile that can light the dawn light the dawn
Time will solve the mysteries of every lover that has ever been in love before me Now will become a memory
And all the trouble we had together will just fade away from you.
I will always be in love with you

Hold on to the world
Go on and fall in love
Don't be afraid to fall in love Right now Go and fall in love Right now Right
